

ASSISTANT CITY ENGINEER TALKS OF SURFACINGS

Ohrt Tells of Type He Would Use in Work on Kalakaua Avenue

Fred Ohrt, the assistant city engineer who has done most of the work on the Kalakaua avenue improvement project, is looking for the man who started to call the surface coat recommended for the concrete road by the engineer's office a "squeeze coat." It is a misnomer, a misleading, malicious misnomer, he declares.

"A squeeze coat is something like a coat of paint," he asserted heatedly in a discussion of the subject with a property owner in the district this morning. "It is spread on the road with a brush. It is not to be compared with the two-course bituminous wearing surface to be laid on Kalakaua avenue."

The Kalakaua avenue surface, he said, is to be composed of two coats of road oil made up of 90 per cent of 80 penetration asphalt. "If you write anything about this be sure and say 80 penetration asphalt." "If you write to a Star-Bulletin reporter who was listening to the discussion, 'They use asphalt for a squeeze coat, but not 80 penetration asphalt.'"

The oil is heated and sprayed on the road under pressure, he explained. Rock screenings, absolutely free from dust, are worked into the surfacing and a second coat applied, also under pressure. The road is examined for spots with an excess of asphalt and more screenings applied where it is found.

"It gives a road the same surface as though it had been built of asphalt macadam," Ohrt explained. "It is very extensively used on the mainland and has proved very satisfactory, even under heavy traffic conditions. In the opinion of every engineer with whom I have discussed the subject, it will be a satisfactory surface for Kalakaua avenue, and with six inches of reinforced concrete under it will last indefinitely."

MEXICANS MOBBED WHEN ONE SLAPS AN AMERICAN BOY

VINITA, Okla.—Violence was threatened by the Mexican residents of Vinita by a mob of 500 citizens enraged by reports that a Mexican waiter had slapped the face of a small American boy.

A number of Mexicans were driven from the city, while others were forced to take refuge in the county jail which was closely guarded by armed policemen against a crowd that surrounded the building for more than an hour.

Mexican residences and stores were draped with flags and bunting by the mob. Several arrests were made.

Many leaves have been found to possess light-focusing lenses.

MANDATE OF PRESIDENT LI UPON ASSUMING OFFICE SIMPLE IN FORM

PEKING.—President Li Yuan-Hung's official mandate announcing his assumption of the presidency in succession of Yuan Shih-Kai, was extremely simple and brief. It lacked the pomp and verbosity so common to the documents prepared by students of the Chinese classics. The mandate expressed Li Yuan-Hung's sorrow at the death of Yuan Shih-Kai, and pleaded for unanimous support of the Chinese officials and Chinese public in solving the difficulties of the Chinese republic.

The full text of the mandate follows: "Yuan-Hung has assumed the office of president on this the 7th day of the 6th month. Realizing his lack of virtue, he is extremely solicitous lest something may miscarry. His single aim will be to adhere strictly to law for the consolidation of the republic, and the moulding of the country into a really constitutionally administered country. May all officials and people in sympathy with the idea and with united soul and energy fulfill the part that is lacking in him. This is his great hope."

The present general situation is exceedingly precarious. Having just shouldered the great burdens of the state I need the assistance of others in everything pertaining to administrative measures. All civil and military officials outside of Peking should, therefore, remain at their posts and assist in solving the present troubles. Let no man shrink his duties in the slightest degree.

"The republic was the child of the revolution of the year of Hsin Hai. The late great president, who supported the republic and consolidated the whole country, worked diligently day and night planning for the country under great embarrassment. Heaven has denied him longer age, and he has left this world after illness. The whole country mourns in sorrow at the thought of his exemplary merits. I am particularly afflicted by deep sorrow, as I succeed him with the difficulties of our day. Respecting the funeral and interment, the Kuo Wu Yuan shall instruct the officials in charge of such matters carefully to examine the rites and regulations both of China and foreign countries relating to the subject, and draft a suitable program so that the sincere wish of the state to give full recognition to the merits of the departed may thereby be shown."

Bulletin which would surely convict him.

"The police promised me," said McBride, "that they would let my client off with a $25 fine on the lesser charge and dismiss the one charging running a bunok game if he would plead guilty to the lesser. This he did and was fined $200 instead of $25, or nearly as much as Patton."

Chillingworth and Capt. McDuffie, who handled the case, denied making any such promises and the case was not reopened.

McBride declared he would take an appeal to the higher courts. An appeal for mitigation of sentence is also under way for Snyder.

CLAIMS POLICE FAILED TO KEEP THEIR PROMISES

Attorney for Man Who Confessed Permitting Gambling Pleads Vainly in Court

Charging the police had double-crossed his client, Attorney C. H. McBride made a sensational but futile appeal to Judge Monsarrat this morning, asking that the case of T. H. Snyder be reopened. Snyder was recently fined $200 for allowing a gambling game to be conducted on his premises, the Iowa barber shop on King street near Alakea street.

Besides the accusation that the police did not live up to the agreement which induced him to advise Snyder to plead guilty, McBride declared that the prosecution threatened Snyder with the power of the press. The attorney also declared that McBride was not guilty of the charge as read because the room in which the gambling took place was not a part of Snyder's premises but a common room used by everybody in the Occidental block.

"Mr. Chillingworth, the prosecuting attorney, told Snyder the morning of the trial," said McBride in his argument for reopening, "that he had better plead guilty to the charge because there would be a big story with pictures in the afternoon Star-

MANY BOYS APPLY FOR POSITIONS IN Y. M. C. A. COOPERATIVE SCHOOL

Applications for positions in the cooperative trade schools are coming in daily at the Y. M. C. A. The half-time at school and half-time at work is appealing to a large number of boys. It is reported at the association educational department that applications can be accepted from but few more boys for the "printers' apprentice school." There will be opportunity for 24 boys in the half-time business school and these places are in demand by boys.

The printers' apprentice school opens on August 7, when the boys in the school will start their work in the various shops to which they are assigned and their daily study at the Y. M. C. A. classes. The business boys' school starts a week later.

J. Brooks Brown, principal of the schools, is now at work completing the final arrangements for the school opening.

HONOLULU MAKES LUNATICS, SAYS DEAN OF STAGE

S. senators and two congressmen are members of the Ad Club.

"Our motto is to keep hammering at things until we get them, and when we once get started on the questions there is always something moving. There are only two elements holding back. These are the immensely rich, and those who live off the immensely rich. The present action on the road question is only one of the things that the Ad Club is trying to do." During the luncheon reports of committees were received by the president, and Albion Clark, chairman of the road committee, stated that it is not the fault of the supervisors that Kalakaua avenue is not being repaired, but the fault of a few individuals who are blocking the work in a legal way.

Alexander Humle Ford and Raymond C. Brown reported on the civic convention. Chaplain Ignatius Fealy of Schofield Barracks told of the progress being made on the gymnasium at the post.

The Kaal quintet played two selections which were much appreciated.

COURT DECIDES DELICATE QUESTION AS TO DIVORCE

That a wife is not entitled to a divorce on the ground of failure to provide if she deserts her husband or lives apart from him without reasonable cause, is the summary of a decision handed down by the supreme court in the case of Costa vs. Costa, as appeal from the second circuit court. The decree of the lower court granting Costa a divorce on the grounds of desertion is affirmed.
